from Vikas:

Thanks to my band mates for a really fun time writing and playing these songs. Also to Michelle and my family and anyone else who are our fans (not sure how many we have right now). Heavy metal will never die.

from Tommy:

Thanks to Julie for putting up with all my musical gear scattered all over the house...

from Morgan:

Thank you's to: Tiffany for love and support, Jim Waters and Chris Morrison for allowing us a great place to practice, Kane Flint and Jon Venet for their mad guitar fixin' skillz, Beau @ Sport's, Dan @ Congress, Kris @ Plush, KXCI: Don Jennings, Mel Mason, Ginger and Duncan, Christa Madrid for some rad fliers, The Provocative Whites and their whole crew, Jim Cox for the free tremelo pedal, Vic for my awesome overdrive, Target Stores Inc for my funky chorus pedal and Craig's List for everything else. A special big thanks to anyone that has ever said, "Dude, you guys are awesome! I like that one song you do..." And of course, Vikas and Tommy... without them the music would be slightly less mind-blowing. Thank you.
